A Strange Hymn (The Bargainer #2) Chapter 1. Wings. I have wings. The black iridescent feathers glint under the dim lights of Des's royal chambers, now black, now green, now blue. Wings. I stand in front of one of Des's gilded mirrors, both horrified and transfixed by the sight. Even folded up, the tops of my wings loom well above my head and the tips brush the back of my bare calves.

A Strange Hymn (The Bargainer #2) (12) I'm weak in so many ways, but not in this one. "I would leave you.". Even though it would ruin me, I would. Shadows begin to coil and twist at the edges of the room. Someone doesn't like my answer. Des raps his knuckles against the table. "As you rightly should.". I don't know what I expected him to say, but it's not that.
