Baba Yaga Laid An Egg

Baba Yaga Laid An Egg throws caution to the wind and gives you glimpses of what it's like to be an aging woman. I love this. When society sees an older woman, they see just that, an older woman. Never forget these women are still alive. They have desires, dreams, goals; they aren't expected to just roll over and die.

BOOK REVIEW: 'Baba Yaga Laid an Egg' - Washington Times

Baba Yaga Laid An Egg by Dubravka Ugresic "In the absence of all ideologies, the only refuge that remains for the human imagination is the body." This book was recommended to me because of course I love (and fear) Baba Yaga. It is part of series in which authors were asked to write based on an ancient myth.
