literally means the vulva or vagina, and is used figuratively as a derogatory epithet. In British English the epithet denotes an obnoxious or stupid person of either sex, whereas in American English it is rarer and usually applied to a woman. In Britain the usual current pronunciation is / t w æ t / (rhyming with hat); the older pronunciation, still ...

Twat definition, vulva.

See more. While twat has been recorded since the 1650s, we don't exactly know where it comes from.

One theory connects twat to the Old English term for "to cut off."

The (bizarre) implication could be that women's genitalia were thought to be just shorter versions of men's.
