Their final, LVO winning form is arguably the single most broken list in 8th Edition's history, featuring a unit that can soak multiple turns of Warlord Titan shooting and is functionally unkillable, while also putting out a massive amount of firepower. Even though this list prompted another, fast, FAQ that killed it, Iron Hands remain a top tier list.

How Movement Works []. Movement is one of the few cases where 7E's Universal Special Rules format is still used, in that a certain Keyword (FLY) modifies movement for everything in the game that has it.FLY exceptions will always be mentioned below. In all cases, of course, specific rules may affect a model, changing the general rules outlined here.

With 8th edition GW listened to the community. They worked with well known gamers and honed the game to be something that would sit well in the competitive environment. That was their flaw, their lack of vision. What became of 8th edition was a game that worked well in a competitive format but leaves behind anyone who is not interested in that scene.
